

7 Tips to Get to Know a Guy Better

As the saying goes, “love is blind” and for a good reason! When a man is bent on winning your heart, he will try to impress you and “put forward his best foot”. Also, you might be “head over heels” in love with him so that you see only his good side and deny his rough edges. However, in order to make a prudent decision of whether you will accept him or not, you need to have a realistic idea of him.

Here are 5 tips to really get to know him:

[1] Ask the Holy Spirit to open your eyes to see any red flags in his character.

[2] Have long hours of conversation to get to know him better.

[3] Ask questions on important topics (see “25 Topic Ideas To Discuss Before Marriage” in my free resource library).

[4] Use scenarios to bring about in depth discussions.

[5] Intentionally have him around the poor, the needy, children, elderly people and service staff. Look carefully how he relates with them. How a person behaves with these subgroups will give you a good insight into his true character.

[6] Observe his family. All of us are a by-product of our family in more ways than we think.

[7] Get to know his friends. “Birds of a feather flock together.”
